

SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY

1435 DRUMMOND ST., MONTREAL 25
TELEPHONE 879-2867

NEWS RELEASE

March 1, 1968

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

S.G.W.U. MONDAY, MARCH 4 -
EUGENE GENOVESE ON "POSITION OF THE BLACK MAN IN AMERICA"

Dr. Eugene Genovese, Professor of History at Sir George Williams University, will speak on "The Position of the Black Man in America" Monday, March 4.

The lecture is the last in the series presented by the SGWU branch of the Universities Faculty Committee for Peace in Vietnam. It will be held at 1:00 p.m. in room 420 of the Hall Building, Maisonneuve Boulevard and Bishop Street.

Dr. Genovese is author of The Political Economy of Slavery (Pantheon, 1965) which has attracted widespread scholarly acclaim. The field of his specialization is 19th century United States history.

From the office of: Malcolm Stone,
Information Officer